

PlayWrite FAQ

1. General Questions

Q: What is PlayWrite?

A: PlayWrite is a website with gaming and IT news where users can create articles, earn money from views, and promote their articles for more reach.

Q: What topics does the site cover?

A: Gaming news, IT technology, gaming consoles, and related topics.

Q: How do I register?

A: Click “Register” in the header, enter your email, receive a code, and confirm registration.

Q: Can I read articles without registering?

A: Yes, registration is only required to create articles, earn money, and promote your content.

2. Account and Profile

Q: Do I need to create a profile?

A: Your profile is created automatically upon registration. You can change your username in the profile dropdown. Until you set a name, a random username is assigned (e.g., user12345).

Q: What information is in my profile?

A: Username, email, monetary balance ($), internal currency (energy), and payout history.

Q: Can I change my avatar?

A: For now, avatars are standard and cannot be changed.

3. Creating and Publishing Articles

Q: How do I create an article?

A: In your dashboard, open the “Create Article” section: enter the title, attach an image, write the text, and submit it for pre-moderation.

Q: What is pre-moderation?

A: All articles are checked for spam and inappropriate content before being published.

Q: How can I promote my article?

A: Use internal currency (energy) to move your article higher on the homepage for more visibility and views.

4. Balance and Monetization

Q: What types of balances are available?

A:

1. Monetary balance ($) — earned from article views (1000 views = $2).
2. Internal currency (energy) — purchased with real money to promote articles.

Q: How do I buy energy?

A: Minimum purchase is $5 (500 energy). Available packages:

- 500 energy — $5
- 1000 energy — $10
- 5000 energy — $50
- 10000 energy — $100
- 20000 energy — $200
- 50000 energy — $500

Q: How do I withdraw money?

A: Enter the amount to withdraw from your monetary balance. You cannot withdraw more than your current balance.

5. Statistics and Views

Q: Where can I see the statistics of my articles?

A: In your dashboard under “My Articles” or “Statistics,” you can see each article’s title, views, and earnings.

Q: How are views counted?

A: Views are updated every time the page is refreshed and count full article openings by all users.

Q: How do I know how much an article earned?

A: The earnings are displayed next to each article, but the amount is not clickable.

6. Advertising and Promotion

Q: How does article promotion work?

A: You can use energy to move your article higher on the homepage to gain more views and income.

Q: What are the advertising blocks on the site?

A: Ads are placed between articles, on the sidebar, and in top blocks. They do not interfere with reading but help monetize the site.

7. Technical Questions

Q: My balance or earnings are missing. What should I do?

A: Refresh the page or log in again. If the problem persists, contact support via email.

Q: I cannot buy energy or withdraw money. What should I do?
